

ABSTRACT

A multiple layered finish for a vehicle wheel surface that includes a first base layer formed from an organic material disposed upon a portion of the wheel surface.

5 The finish also includes a second layer formed from a first inorganic material that covers the base layer and a third layer formed from a second inorganic material disposed over the second layer.

201504221442